

Mary Ann F. Saggese
Of Counsel

Mary Ann F. Saggese focuses her practice in the areas of environmental permitting, regulation, enforcement, administrative adjudication and litigation with an emphasis on the Clean Air Act. Mary Ann's engineering degree and years of industry experience in air regulatory compliance greatly enhance her representation of clients in the environmental field. Mary Ann has counseled and represented various manufacturing clients in administrative appeals of Title V Permits and in CAA civil and criminal enforcement actions, both at state and federal levels. She has successfully negotiated more favorable or reduced Title V stack sampling and compliance monitoring requirements for many clients. Mary Ann also counsels clients with NPDES, OSHA, and solid and hazardous waste issues. Prior to law school, Mary Ann managed all air regulatory and pollution control equipment activity and acted as the primary IBM representative in production plant air regulation issues involving local, state and federal officials for IBM Corporation from 1982 to 1987. Mary Ann has been a speaker for the Indiana University School of Law at Indianapolis, National Business Institute, Environmental Quality Control, Inc., and the Indiana Manufacturers' Association.

Mary Ann received her B.S. in Civil Engineering from Purdue University in 1982 with an emphasis on environmental engineering. Mary Ann received her J.D. from The George Washington University National Law Center in Washington, D.C. in 1989. She practiced law at Braude and Margules in Washington, D.C. and Cromer, Eaglesfield & Maher in Indianapolis prior to joining the firm in 1997. Among other volunteer activities, Mary Ann serves on the Board of Directors for the Claridge Farm Homeowners Association and the Central Indiana Dance Ensemble (CIDE).
