

John B. Bridge
Senior Counsel

John Bridge is a retired partner and is the founder and the original Chair of the law firm's Healthcare and Life Sciences Practice Group. While a partner at the firm, he also was a founder and an Executive Vice President and General Counsel of a leading Midwest healthcare management company that merged into and became part of a larger national healthcare management company.

John's other work at the law firm has focused on corporate transactions, including real estate sales and purchases, financings, leases, contracts, and negotiations. John has guided and effected the acquisition or sale of property and other assets and business interests in diverse fields including petroleum marketing, health services, insurance, alternative energy and environmental consulting.

John's distinguished legal career spans more than three decades. John received his A.B, magna cum laude, from Wabash College in 1972. He received his J.D. from Columbia University School of Law in 1975. After law school John practiced in New York City as an associate at Shearman & Sterling in New York City from 1975 to 1978, then at Baker & Daniels, Indianapolis from 1978 to 1981. For the next 15 years John served as in-house counsel at several companies. He was Associate Corporate Counsel for Inland Container Corporation from 1981 to 1983, Corporate Counsel and Secretary for Resort Condominiums International, Inc. from 1983 to 1984, and Executive Vice President and General Counsel for Brougner Insurance Group, Inc., and its successors, VASA North America Inc. and Seaboard North American Holdings, Inc., from 1984 to 1996. John joined this firm as of counsel in 1996 and became a partner in 1999. He served as Managing Partner of the firm in 2004-2005 and currently serves in that role. John has an AV Preeminent peer review rating by Martindale-Hubbell.
