OVERVIEW

Fires, tornados, thefts and accidents unfortunately happen. Making sure you're covered for these unexpected losses can make or break a business. Our attorneys have worked on all facets of property claims and their associated coverages such as "business income" and "extra expense" coverages. We have experience from assisting with the submittal of your "proof of loss" to litigating nuanced exceptions to exclusions. We can help you navigate these cumbersome policies to maximize your recovery.
